Probers Find That State Bought Gold Leaf at Advance Price

WAS INDEBTED TO FIRM

Eight-Hour Law for Women Workers Introduced in House This Afternoon.

Columbus, Feb. 7.—The Beatty committee today learned that Mark Slater, former state printer, is a single year bought more than $300 worth of jewelry from Goodman Brothers of Columbus, to whom he later, while indebted to them, gave a contract for gold leaf amounting to $2,575.

On the gold leaf contract Edward J. Goodman, a member of the firm testified that his concern realized $887.50 profit. They bought the leaf at $6.75 a pack and sold it to Slater for $9.50.

Chairman Beatty produced price lists showing that gold leaf sold at that time for $7.00 a pack. Goodman admitted that had Slater been a shrewd buyer he might have got it at that price. He testified that his firm had difficulty in getting a settlement with Slater. Goodman denied that Slater had been given any rebate on reduced prices on jewelry he bought.

The eight hour law for women workers was introduced in the house this afternoon by Representative Evans, Republican, of Cuyahoga. The bill requires every concern employing females to limit their day's work to eight hours, to provide comfortable seats for them when they are not actively engaged, and to provide suitable lunch rooms for them. Under the provisions of the proposed law are factories, workshops, offices, telegraph and telephone establishments and millinery and dressmaking establishments. Forty-eight hours constitute the maximum time a female may be employed in any one week.

tent today that the large manufacturing industries had to be closed down.

FOREIGNERS

Have Been Warned to Seek Safety in Legation at Managua as Battle is Expected Shortly.

Managua, Feb. 7.—Publication that followed yesterday's dispatches that Provisional President Estrada's army had been decisively defeated at Santo Tomas, and that the city had thus escaped the threatened attack, was curved to wild alarm today by the news that Generals Mora and Chamorro of the revolutionary army are now within two days' march of the capital. Today's dispatches say that the revolutionary army was victorious in Saturday's fighting.

The government is making frantic efforts to reorganize an efficient fighting force to defend Managua, but there are not more than six hundred soldiers available. An attack is expected before Thursday. All foreigners have been warned to seek safety in the legation.

CARNIVAL OF CRIME IN COLUMBUS UNDER NEW MORAL REFORM MAYOR

Columbus, Feb. 7.—Ohio's capital city is certainly experiencing a carnival of crime under the administration of the new "reform" mayor, who came into office on January 1. Mayor Marshall made a moral reform campaign and on that was elected. Then on election day till the time Marshall went into office the moral reform promises were kept up on a very loud scale. Police reform, with Sunday saloon closing, was conspicuously advertised, and the existing police and detective force of the city as well as the administrative police were to be absolutely tipped up.

There have been just five official weeks of this reform policy and the results are astounding. During this period the city has been the scene of a carnival of crime.

The Daily Dispatch of Saturday evening enumerated fourteen holdups in January and but two arrests.
And now in the midst of public excitement over the shooting murder of John M. Campbell, early Saturday morning, in two thirds of the city are to run down and arrest the criminals, comes the order from police headquarters for a censorship of police news.

In the face of facts and the statement of the living man that he was assaulted by two forces and the other experiences of the murder claim is made today that Campbell was killed by a street car or automobile.
The object of this claim is to lessen public criticism of police inefficiency and the responsibility for the number of crimes committed for which no arrests have been made.

It is recognized that the censorship of police news is something heretofore unheard of in American cities.
A policy in Columbus by which the newspapers will be barred or restricted from printing police news cannot fail to create indignation, and criticism of the city's police headquarters is abroad today.

It is said that no more than two of the police force have worked on the Campbell murder, and the failure to arrest the criminals in the numerous other recent cases indicates a general policy of laxness or incompetence.

Reorganization of the police force is again talked of by Mayor Marshall, and yet it was supposed that that was just what he practically did when he took office on January 1.

A morning paper said today:
"Men familiar with police procedure, who have been connected with the Columbus police for many years and who are acquainted with the conditions now confronting the department, say the only possible hope of ridding the present crime wave is to institute a system of prevention rather than cure."

ANOTHER HOLD UP.
Columbus, Feb. 7.—While Chief of Police Carter was taking a ride last night on a saloon for violating the Sunday ordinance, two negroes in the crowd watching the parade held up a man and robbed him of 45 cents, all the money he had.

Thousands Stand in Drizzling Rain About Theatre While Play Goes on.

Paris, Feb. 7.—"Chantecler" the bird play "Masterpiece" of Edmond Rostand, is too poetic for any but the literary elite is the opinion of many of those who witnessed the initial performance at the Porte St. Martin theatre, which did not end until an early hour this morning.

For this reason critics are almost unanimous in predicting that the play will have but a limited run and that it is doubtful whether it would pay to take it on the road.

From a scenic standpoint, Paris has probably never seen any thing surpassing the "Chantecler." The accessories and properties used are so big that the audience felt itself dwarfed.
The wheelbarrow used in the play is twelve feet long and all other properties of corresponding size. The interest in the play was so intense that thousands stood in a drizzling rain about the theatre, while the production was going on. Those who left the theatre between acts were nearly mobbed by the curious throng outside which wanted to know how the play was being received. Only the presence of a large force of police prevented a riot.

The moral of Chantecler (Rooster) is that a rooster's "sphere" is the barnyard. There he is supreme and can make his subjects believe that it is his crowing that makes the sun rise.
"Chantecler" driven to desert the barnyard by his petty jealousies and his love for the pheasant, goes to the woods to live. There he is beguiled by the pheasant and awakens to find that the sun has risen without his crowing. His exposure chastens

SEVEN MEN PASSING DYNAMITE CHARGE WERE BLOWN TO ATOMS

Phoenix, Ariz., Feb. 7.—Heedless of the warning of a foreman in charge of excavating operations along the line of the private motor road from Kelvin to the Ray copper mines, the motorman of a six-wheeled car containing six passengers ran his car close to a sputtering fuse of a heavy charge of dynamite yesterday and the car and its seven occupants were blown to atoms. The dead:

J. B. Joyce,
A. S. Beeber,
J. C. Griffin civil engineers employed by the Ray Consolidated Copper company.

R. P. Coleman, of Salt Lake City.
W. H. Fitzgerald,
Walter C. Frenz, mining engineer employed by the Henry Krumb, engaged in sampling the development work at the Ray mines.

W. H. Lyall, motorman.
The foreman had discovered a missed shot in the excavation at noon, and before the motor car came in sight he had relighted the fuse. As the car approached he signaled the motorman and warned him of the in-pending explosion. Motorman Lyall evidently believed he could take his car past the charge in safety before the explosion, and so he did not heed the warning and started at full speed.
Just as the car was passing the charge exploded, and the car with its load of human freight was blown high debris. The dead men were all prom-

GIRL WAS KEPT AS PRISONER

By Aged Millionaire Coal Operator of Pittsburgh

POSED AS HIS DAUGHTER

Couple Dragged from Room by Police—Country Maid Extorted away from Home.

Pittsburgh, Penn., Feb. 7.—James Mathews, aged 71, retired millionaire coal operator, grandfather of administrator morning stood before Judge J. J. Kirby in Central Police Court, and was forced to listen to the harrowing tale of Elizabeth Herman, until a year ago an innocent eighteen-year old country girl, who openly charged him with enticing her from the farm of her father, near Cambridge Springs, the exclusive watering place of Western Pennsylvania.

At 2 o'clock Sunday morning Mathews and the girl were dragged from their beds at 515 Ross street, where the girl asserts she has been virtually a prisoner for the last two months.

The police had been notified that Mathews and the girl were not father and daughter, as he had a people to believe, but that the girl's parents instituted a worldwide search for her and had been unable to obtain any trace of their daughter.

"Two years ago," said Miss Herman "that horrible old man came to Cambridge Springs. He became acquainted with my cousin, and, through him, with me. One day he complained of not feeling well and I ran errands for him. Later I put cold towels on his head to relieve his headache.

"For more than a year, until last September, he treated me like a daughter. During September he came out, we sat in the parlor together for some time and he began caressing me.
"He came to me, he was very kind and, after that, he told me how wealthy he was, and often used to give me as much as $50 at a time, telling me to purchase clothes with the money."

"Two months ago he told me he had come to Pittsburgh and remain for some time. He said he wanted a dear little nurse, just like me and told me he would pay me $100 a month. He told me to tell my folks I was going to visit friends, as he feared my father would not allow me to accompany him.

"I did just as he told me and never let my folks know anything about it.
We first registered at the Griswold House here, where we had nice apartments. Three days later he told me he had taken an apartment on Ross street, but when we arrived there I found nothing but one bedroom and a sitting room. He gruffly told me if I didn't like that he would throw me out on the street so I took his treatment.

"From that moment my life was a hell upon earth. He sent me to school, but insisted upon accompanying me both to and from the schoolhouse. He seemed to be around at all times and twice when I attempted to run away he intercepted me as I was about to get on the train. He often beat me.

"The last beating I got at his hands was Saturday afternoon. I was coming from school with a girl friend when I saw him awaiting me. I stepped into a doorway, hoping he would not see me, but he did and when he saw me he hit me on the breast and kicked me in the stomach. I defended myself with a hair brush and struck him on the head. Shortly after that the officers came and arrested us."

Mathews, who had $180,315 in his possession when arrested, refused to have anything to say beyond, "There is two sides in every story and I will tell mine later."

Judge Kirby held the case under advisement until he can communicate with the parents of the young woman.

For the last 40 years Mathews has been one of the leading independent coal operators in this part of the country. About three years ago he gave up a five business, selling his coal interests to the Pittsburgh Coal Company for a fabulous sum.

When arraigned in Court, Miss Herman wore three diamond rings and a handsome pair of diamond earrings, all of which she said Mathews gave her.

She denies he refused to pay her the hundred dollars as he agreed and that he always kept her without ready cash so she could not run away.

"He went so far," she said, "as to notify the pawnshops that the jewelry he gave me had been stolen, so I had to borrow money on them."

More Oriental Rugs

A glance at the store window of Meyer & Lindorf will convince every Oriental connoisseur that the values Mr. Sleyman is presenting are not to be duplicated at any other store in the United States.

The sale is proving to be an event of stirring interest among the housekeeping community in Newark, which is no doubt due to the high character of "THE SLEYMAN COLLECTION" and the firm's one piece system. Several thousand dollars' worth of choice pieces have just been added to the collection.

Rug connoisseurs will kindly bear in mind that wholesale prices are only quoted where two or more rugs are desired. The following values are submitted for your consideration.

THEY INJURE CHILDREN

Ordinary Cathartics and Pills and Harsh Physic Cause Distressing Complaints.

You cannot be over-careful in the selection of medicine for children. Only the very gentlest bowel medicine should ever be given, except in emergency cases. Ordinary pills, cathartics and purgatives are apt to do much harm than good. They cause griping, nausea and other distressing after-effects that are frequently health-destroying and a life-lasting annoyance.

We personally recommend and guarantee Rexall Orderlies as the safest and most dependable remedy for constipation and associate bowel disorders. We have such absolute faith in the virtues of this remedy that we sell it on our guarantee of money back in every instance where it fails to give entire satisfaction, and we urge all in need of such medicine to try it at our risk.

Rexall Orderlies contain an entirely new ingredient, which is odorless, tasteless and colorless. As an active agent, it embraces the valuable qualities of the best known intestinal regulator tonics.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy. They are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night, do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness or other undesirable effects. They have a very desirable action upon the glands and organs, act as a positive and regulative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel and its dry mucous lining; remove irritation, overcome weakness, tone and strengthen the nerves and muscles, and restore the bowels and associate organs to more vigorous and healthy activity.

Rexall Orderlies completely relieve constipation, except when of a surgical character. They also tend to overcome the necessity of constantly taking laxatives to keep the bowels in normal condition.

There is really no medicine for this purpose so good as Rexall Orderlies, especially for children, aged and delicate persons. They are prepared in tablet form in two sizes of packages: 12 tablets 10 cents, and 24 tablets 25 cents. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Newark only at our store.—The Rexall Store, Hall's Drug Store, 10 North Side Square.

FEDERATION VALUE

The Church Militant's Surrender
to the Church Triumphant.

"Say ye now, A Federation, to all them whom this people shall say, A Federation; neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid!" (Isaiah vii, 12).

the name of Christ hypocritically, merely as a garment to deceive, that they may the better gain their ends. Thus we find the nominal Church to consist of:

(1) Hypocrites; (2) Moralists; (3) Indifferents; (4) Seekers after godliness; (5) The true Church, "the sanctified in Christ Jesus" (1 Corinthians i, 2)—"members of the Body of Christ," prospective members of the Church Triumphant.

Fightings Without and Within.
Every member of "the Church of the first-born" was called "to suffer with Christ" that he may be also later glorified with him in the Millennial Kingdom. Only those who will stand the test of faithfulness under sufferings, trials, crosses, self-sacrifices, have the promise of sharing with Christ the glories of the Church Triumphant.

"If we be dead with him, we shall also live with him; if we suffer with him, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us" (1 Timothy ii, 11, 12).

But why should the Church fight? Is she not commended to live peaceably with all? Are not Christians exhorted to war not with carnal weapons and to be swift on both cheeks, rather than to return evil for evil? Where, then, comes in the fight? Who are the foes? Surely none would assail a non-resistant!

We reply that the facts do not bear out this suggestion. Our Lord and his apostles were peaceable and non-resistant, obedient to kings and laws, and yet they suffered violent deaths, as well as stripes and imprisonment. They had their names cast out as evil. And those who persecuted and maligned them verily thought that they did God service. All who follow in the Lord's footsteps must expect similar treatment, because, as Jesus said, "The servant is not greater than his Lord." "Marvel not, if the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you. If ye were of the world, the world would love you; but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you" (John xviii, 18, 19). The Master said, "The darkness hateth the light," which explains why the chief religionists of his time, being of wrong condition of heart, instigated his crucifixion. They were of the darkness, living outwardly holy, while in heart they were far from consecrated to God. The very holding up of the torch of Truth was painful to them, reproved them and excited their animosity. Human nature is the same today. Notwithstanding the fact that heretic-roasting has become unpopular and intolerable to the world, there are methods of privately and symbolically roasting, slandering, wounding and killing practised by those estranged from God, though sometimes highly esteemed of men and wearing vestments only slightly less glorious than those worn by Calaphas and Pilate.

The Scriptures explain that there is a two-fold reason why Jesus and all of his followers are required to suffer for righteousness' sake.

(1) It is requisite to their own character-development that they should not only profess absolute loyalty to God and to Truth, but that this loyalty should be put to the test. Thus we read of our Lord that though "holy, harmless, undefiled," he was proved perfect in his loyalty by the things which he endured—by his obedience even unto death, even the ignominious death of the cross. The same principle, the Scriptures assure us, operates in connection with all whom God is now calling to be Emmanuel's associates in the Millennial Kingdom. They must suffer with him if they would reign with him. They must walk in his steps (Galatians v, 11; vi, 12; II Thessalonians i, 5; II Timothy i, 12; ii, 9, 12; iii, 12).

(2) These experiences are designed of God to qualify us to be judges of the world during the Millennial Age—that the Christ, Head and Body, may be merciful and faithful towards the people of earth. Likewise it is proper that the world should know that its judges have thus been tested and tried, and are able to sympathize with them in their weaknesses and in their endeavors for righteousness—and more willing to help them up, up to human perfection than to consign them to the Second Death.

Although this conflict has lasted for more than eighteen centuries it has not been long for any single individual. With the Master himself the trial period was only three and a half years. On the whole, as compared with eternity, the entire Gospel Age of Sacrifice, as the Master said, is but "a little while." And as for the afflictions and testings themselves, St. Paul gives the proper thought, saying, that at most they are "light afflictions" but for a moment and not worthy to be compared with the glory that shall be revealed in us," the overcomers (Romans viii, 18).

The Church Triumphant.
The Church in glory and in power will contain no hypocrites and no merely nominal Christians—only the true, the saintly, the "sanctified in Christ Jesus." Nevertheless it will be composed of two classes, as illustrated by the Priests and the Levites in the type. (1) Jesus glorified, the antitypical High Priest, and his faithful footstep followers, the antitypical under-priesthood—otherwise his "Bride." Together these are styled a Royal Priesthood or a Kingdom of Priests. St. Paul tells us that Melchizedek, who was a priest upon his throne, merely typified the Church Triumphant—Head and Body—The Christ. "A priest forever after the order of Melchizedek"—a priest upon his throne. During the Millennial Age that glorious Priest, Head and Members, will bless and uplift, rule and judge, the world of mankind, with a view to recovering as many as possible, as many as will obey him, from the rule of sin and death. During the thousand years of the Melchizedek reign all the families of the earth will be blessed with opportunities of return to human perfection and to earthly Paradise. The willing and obedient will be destroyed in the Second Death. At the close of the Millennium, Christ's Mediatorial Kingdom will terminate.

As the Levites were much more numerous than their brethren, the priests, so there is another class in the Church corresponding—styled "a great company, whose number no man knoweth," in that they were not specially predestinated. These less earnest, less zealous than the faithful "little flock," will reach a plane of glory through tribulation also, but with less joy. These, we are told, will be with the Bride as her companions. As Levites they will serve God in his temple, but not be members of the temple class, the Priesthood. These will have palm branches and be before the Throne, while the Royal Priesthood will have crowns and be in the throne as members of the Body of Christ.

All the soldiers of the cross, experiencing fightings without and within against the powers of sin and darkness and their own weaknesses, surely long for the time of their "change" in the "First Resurrection." They long for the time when this mortal shall put on immortality; when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption; when we shall be like our Redeemer and see him as he is and share his glory. Gladly, therefore, do all of God's consecrated people wait for the blessed change promised at our Lord's Second Coming, when that which is sown in weakness shall be raised in power; when that which is sown in dishonor shall be raised in glory; when that which is sown an animal body shall be raised a spiritual body (1 Corinthians xv, 42-44, 53, 54). Surely such, having prayed, "Thy Kingdom come: thy will be done on earth as in heaven," are waiting for the King and God's time for establishing his Kingdom for the blessing of the world. No wonder the Apostle wrote of these, "Our selves also, which have the first-fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our Body"—the Body of Christ, the Church, through the power of the "First Resurrection" change. This will be our glad surrender to the Church Triumphant, when we shall hear the Master's voice saying, "Well done, good and faithful servants: enter ye into the joys of your Lord. You have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things"—participants in the Millennial Kingdom glory and its dominion of earth for the uplifting of mankind (1 Corinthians vi, 2; Revelation ii, 26).

Union or Federation—Which?
I ask you, my hearers, and indirectly I ask the millions of my larger congregation whom I address weekly through the public prints.—What advantage will accrue to the Church Militant through the on-coming Federation? I reply that great advantage will come to the saintly few, not in the manner expected, but along the lines of the Divine promise that "All things shall work together for good to them that love God—to the called according to his purpose." The Church Federation, which the Scriptures distinctly show us will be effected, will include the various classes already indicated:—(1) Hypocrites; (2) Moralists; (3) Followers afar off; (4) Saints.

But in the Federation the Moralists and Hither Critics will be dominant forces. The saintly will less than ever be in evidence and appreciated. The outward and apparent success of the Federation will seem wonderful for a moment, but the results will be disastrous.

The saintly few, guided by God's Word and holy Spirit, will awaken to the true situation and become separated from the nominal mass. Their misguided hopes as respects the bringing about of a spiritual Kingdom on earth will be thoroughly shattered, and more than ever, they will look to the Lord as the source of help and wait for his Kingdom to come through the Redeemer's advent and the Resurrection "change."
